

GCCC Dinner Dance 24th March 2007

This year's dinner dance at the Clandon Regis Golf Club has to be the most successful for some time, having nearly vanished from the club's calendar for 'lack of interest'. Instead a record 51 members rose to the challenge of keeping it going, inviting another 27 guests to make for a really wonderful evening.

The party atmosphere was themed in blue and gold, with balloons and table decorations by Trisha Tunmore, and table flowers by Pam Minett. Pam also 'Excelled' herself with her trustworthy spreadsheet, so we all knew who had paid for what, where to sit and what to eat.

The dinner was the tastiest for years, courtesy of Ian the Chef, and soon the dance floor sparkled and sprang to life as Gary, our DJ for the evening, intuitively guessed the music to get us on our feet. Not only that, he had Mandy singing to us, and then some 'interactive' dancing (and not with our usual partners).

The Tom Edwards trophy went to Clive and Mandy, the Rose Bowl went to Rosie (who else) for being such a good lady Commodore.

Good food, good wine, good dancing and good company – let's keep this tradition going.
